MAN AND WOMAN

The term “jeans” refers to a particular style of pants, called “blue jeans,” which were invented by Jacob Davis in partnership with Levi Strauss & Co in 1871 and patented by Jacob Davis and Levi Strauss on May 20, 1873. Originally designed for cowboys and miners, jeans became popular in the 1950s among teenagers. Black Jeans is inspired by the lifestyle of today.

MAN AND WOMAN

Black was one of the first colors used by artists in Neolithic cave paintings. In the 14th century, it began to be worn by royalty, the clergy, judges and government officials in much of Europe. It became the color worn by English romantic poets, businessmen and statesmen in the 19th century, and a high fashion color in the 20th century, especially Italian modern fashion leader like Armani.
